

M.P.'s Recruiting for 40th Division

Men from Torrance and vicinity who are eligible for the draft are being sought by Captain James B. Pettit as recruits in the new 40th Military Police Company which is being organized at the Los Angeles army, 700 Exposition Blvd., Los Angeles.

This company will handle the police problems of the entire 40th Division and will be mustered into federal service for one year on January 27, 1941, and will be stationed with the division at San Luis Obispo. Men with previous police experience will probably find excellent opportunities for advancement in this unit. In addition to basic soldiers, specialists such as cooks and clerks are desired.

Full details may be obtained by interview with Captain Pettit at the army in Exposition Park Friday night, Jan. 3; Tuesday night, Jan. 7, or by phoning PProspect 3535.

Rigg and Fritts Score Hole-in-one at P.V. Course

Ralph Rigg, of 1003 Acacia street, and George Fritts, of 1983 218th street, who recently made holes-in-one at the Palos Verdes Country Club are learning that fame travels fast. They have just received from the United States Rubber Company, one of the country's leading golf ball manufacturers, bronze medals in recognition of their spectacular shots. The medals, designed for use as watch charms, show the figure of a golfer making a drive.

Mr. Rigg scored his ace on the 235-yard 4th hole of the Palos Verdes course while playing a twosome with George Masal, while Mr. Fritts made his on the 159-yard 15th hole during a match with Clarence Heid.

A third Torrance golfer, J. Wallace Post got a hole-in-one last September on the 140-yard 8th hole at Palos Verdes.

Predict Erection of County Courts Bldg. in 1941

The new year will see the start of actual construction of a county courts building for Los Angeles county, it was forecast this week by Wayne Allen, chief officer for the board of supervisors.

"With the use of certain moneys now in the law library fund and moneys which the board will have this year, (1941) in view of the fact it is an off-election year, a courts building could be constructed without a bond issue and without increasing the tax rate," Allen was quoted as saying.

He added that "there are certain funds now available which could be used for obtaining the remainder of the property on top of Fort Moore Hill and for the leveling of a sufficient area for construction of the courts building and the extension of Aliso street."

The county regional planning commission, the Los Angeles city planning commission, and the California State highway commission all have approved the revised Civic Center Plan which provides for the erection of a courts building immediately north of the present Hall of Justice on the site of old Fort Moore Hill.

This entails the removal of the North Broadway tunnel, which in turn will permit the lowering and widening of North Broadway between Temple street and Sunset boulevard. The tunnel accommodates both street railway and automobile traffic, but is inadequate for both at this time.
